

Engaging Australian Advent studies from ABM

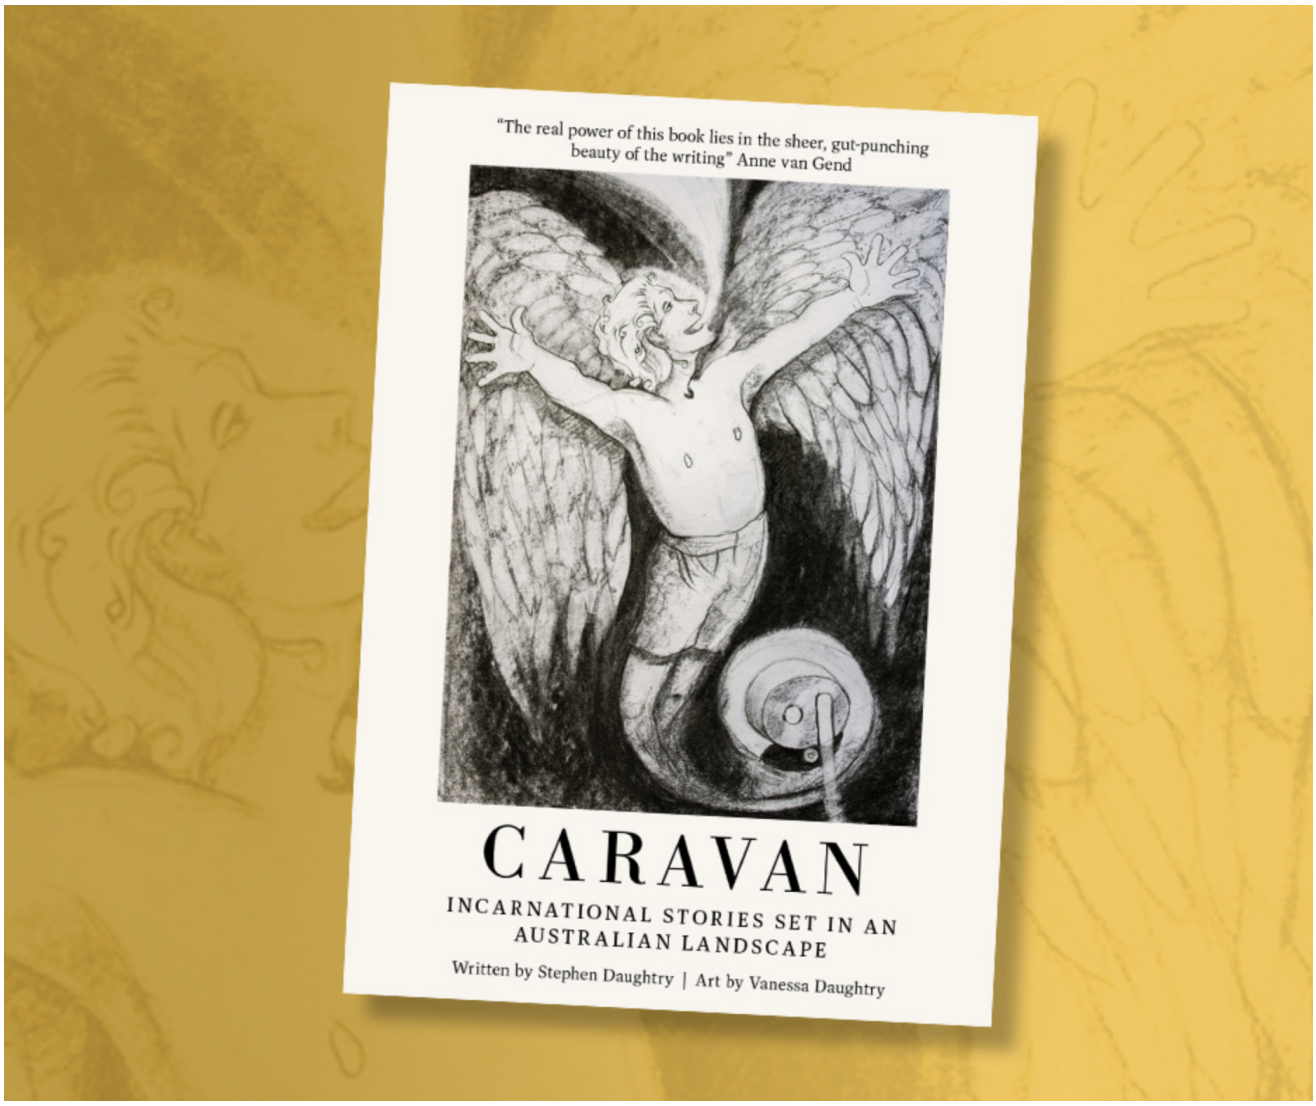

The Revâ??d Canon Stephen Daughtry, ABM Missional Theologian

Advent is a fresh start. To Godâ??s story. To the Incarnation. To the church year.

You can start your Advent with fresh, Australian and creative studies that will delight and surprise.

ABMâ??s CARAVAN is a book of incarnational stories based on the birth of Christ but set in an Australian landscape. Written in a way that allows it to be used as a study for groups or individuals, it will also make a wonderful gift.

CARAVAN reframes and throws new light on the stories we think we know backwards, and asks the question, â??Could it have happened here and now? In Australia?â?• From the Annunciation to Epiphany (and a little beyond) CARAVAN is an incarnational journey into the heart of what it means to be human â?? and to be loved.

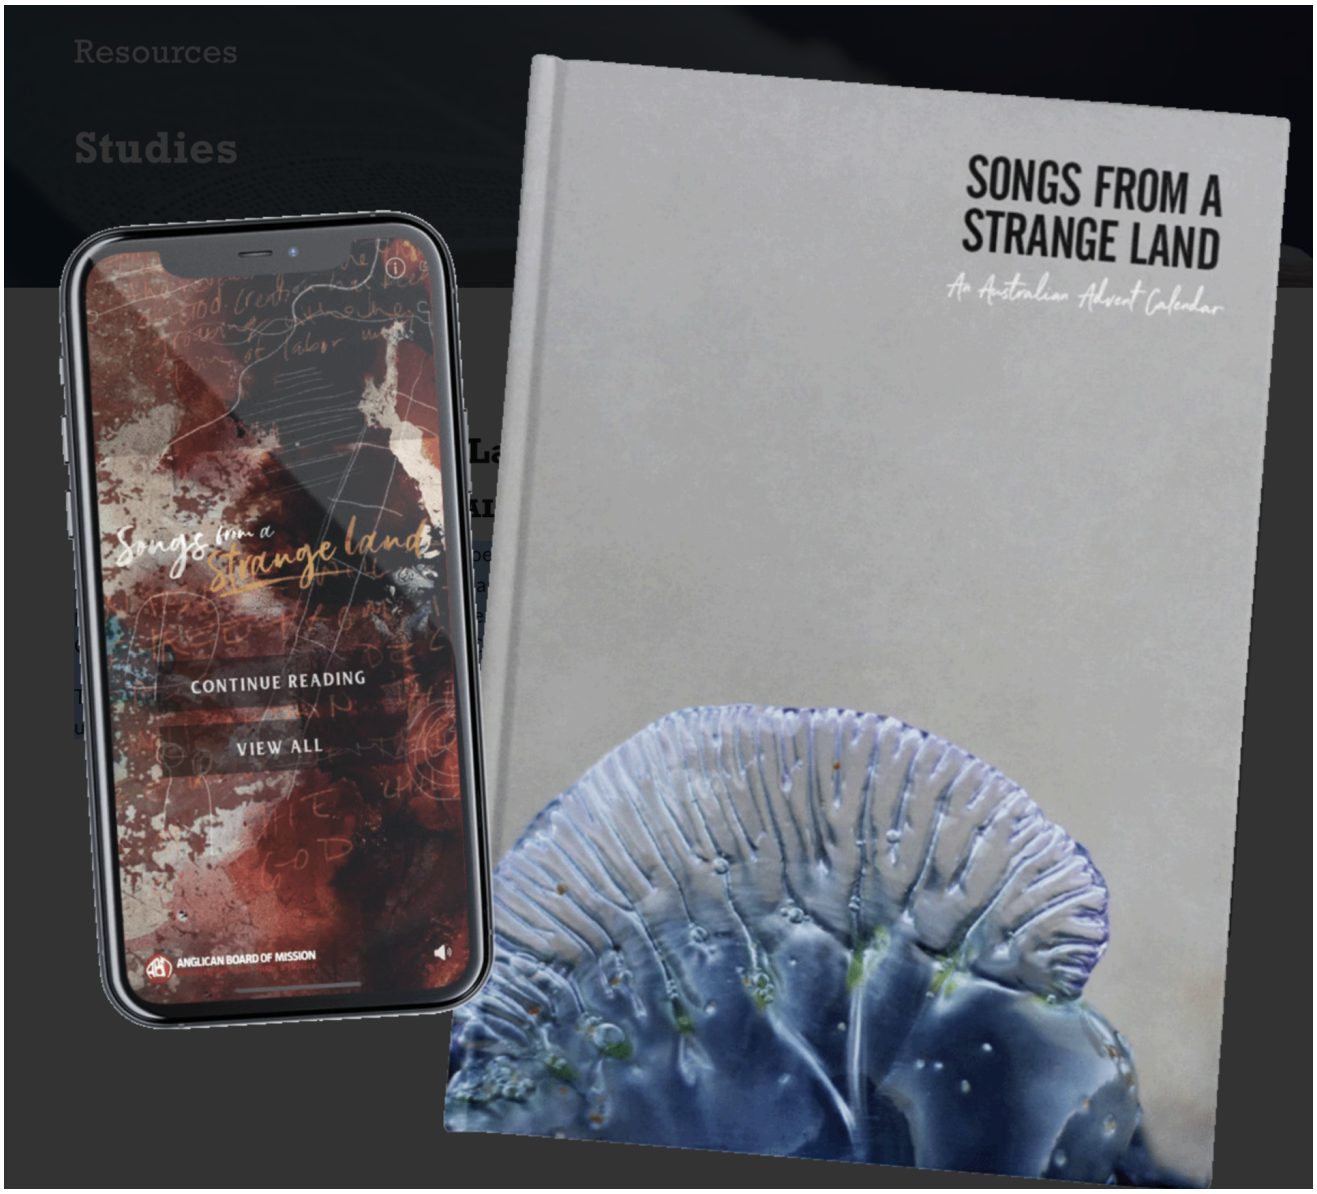

CARAVAN takes you from the Annunciation to Epiphany with deeply moving stories that set the events in an Australian landscape. Relive the story of Christâ??s birth as if it happened next door and yesterday! Audio-book versions are also available to listen to online. You can order your copy here.

In another ABM Advent offering, Songs From a Strange Land, Celia Kemp explores the mystical and prophetic edge of Advent with a reflection for each day from 1 December to 6 January.

Scripture readings, quotes, photographs, poems, cartoons and songs take you through Advent and Incarnation with a particular emphasis on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Christianity, the Australian landscape and Creation theology.

You can order or download Songs from a Strange Land here.

The app is designed to begin on December 1st, but can be used at any time.

ABM is your missional companion and we are proudly Australian and proudly Anglican.

Thereâ??s still time to order you books for individual, group, parish or diocesan study.

May God be with you in this glorious season of discovery and wonder.

Date Created
November 20, 2026